Feels His Responsibility.

I am not aware of having any detachable apparatus inside of me. On the contrary, if I were to interpret myself, I would say that my constant embarrass-ment is to restrain the emotions that are inside of me. You may not believe it, but I sometimes feel like a fire from a far from extinct volcano, and if the lava does not seem to spill over it is because you are not high enough to see do not know how else to express it than to say, passionate sense of being connected with my fellow-men in a peculiar relationship of responsibility. On Hands Every Winter for Thirty cura Soap and Ointment Cured.

19 N. 18th St., Fort Smith, Ark .- "I have had eczema on my hands every winter for thirty years. The eczema broke out in a roughness of the skin. Then when I would scratch it would turn to pimples and bleed and water ooze from it. The itching was very intense and it would inflame and made sores. I could not put my hands in water or do my housework or bear the cold wind. I lost rest at night. I tried a number of treatments but to no avail. They could dry it up for a while but when I would wash or have my hands exposed to cold wind back it would come, red rough at first then burning, itching, smarting would follow. I was told was no cure; it was in the blood. "I read of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and tried a sample. It seemed to help my hands. Then I bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and some Cuticurs Soap and when I had used it up my bands peeled off sound and well and it never has appeared any more. That has been over a year ago. You see I it were not against the law. You see I have a scruple as President against breaking the law, and disguising one's self is against the law, but if I could disguise myself and not get caught, I would go out, be a free American citizen once more, and have a jolly time. I might then meet some of you gentlemen and actually tell you what I really thought."

The new rooms, which have been occupied by the club for nearly two weeks, were handsomely decorated with ferns and American Beauty roses. The "ladies" night" started with dinner, which was served to several hundred members and guests. After dinner there was an ex-ceptionally fine entertainment program, singed with all the attractive informality of a family party. Enjoyed by Pair Sex.

At 6:30 o'clock in the evening the club threw wide its doors to ladies and the fair sex arrived in large numbers. But seldom since establishment of the club has it entertained ladies and they seemed to greatly enjoy the novel experience.
Within an hour after the first fair guests nrived the club was so crowded that trains had to be maneuvered with delicate care.

Mothers, wives, daughters, sweethearts and platonic friends were there, and their entrances were followed by stifled as

When Senator Shafroth offered his resolution yesterday the opponents of wom-an suffrage promptly moved to refer it to the Judiciary Committee. Senator Bryan, of Florida, made the motion. There was a sharp debate, but when the roll was called the motion to refer to the Judiciary Committee was voted down,

Immediately following the vote

The purpose of the suffragists in chang-ing the form of the amendment was to overcome the objection raised by Senator Borah and others that the Federal government should not impose woman suf-frage on the States without their consent. Mrs. Medill McCormick, who has been leading the fight for a Constitutional amendment, became convinced that it would be impossible to pass an amend-States by Federal legislation. In its new form, the suffrage amendment is likely to command several more votes. It is understood that Senator Borah is ready 19 Large semi-indirect moonstone glass fixtures for administration rooms.

16 2-light electroliers, Treasurer's office.

1,276 chain pendants, with reflector shades, to light the large roms.

3 large ceiling bowls, with Macbeth Alba glass.

13 ceiling fixtures indirect with Macbeth Alba glass for main corridor. 1,546 feet of silver glass reflector lights.

204 side brackets, with patented switch.

74 indirect ceiling fixtures for north wing. 218 electric receptacle style.

204 electric pendants for minor places.

124 exit lights, with red electric balls.

34 small 1-light electrics.

Over 1,300 feet of Mercury lights.

Over 2,000 Holoplane glass shades were used.

Only 52 gas lights in the entire building.

This is the contract according to the specifications. The firm is pleased with the fact that their system of over 2,000 tags, designating the wing of the building, the floor, and the rooms and descriptions of fixture, which were tied on each item separately at the Brighton, N. J., factory, systematized the work and resulted in just the same net profit as was figured in the original estimate.
